

How To Become a Project Manager

START

Employment by Gender

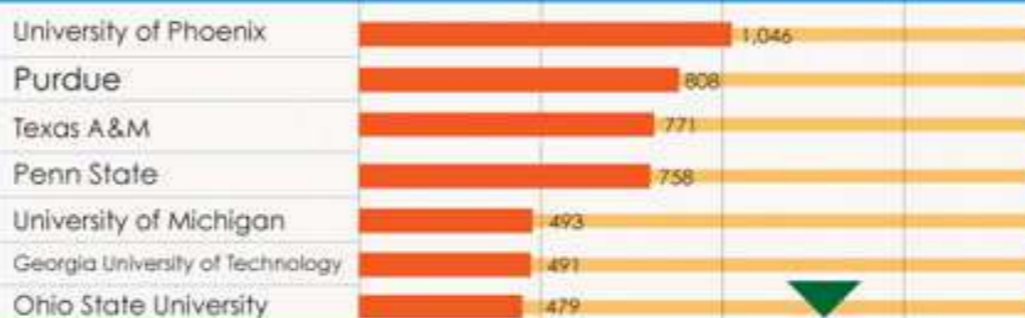

78% male

22% female

Average Salary by Gender

male	$59,368 - $98,783
female	$52,148 - $87,338

Most Popular Schools

Most Popular Degrees*

7.48% hold a Bachelor of Science degree in Engineering

3.51% hold a Master's degree in business administration

More than 16 Million people regard themselves as Project Managers.

2.15% hold a Bachelor of Science degree in Computer Science

GRADUATE - move forward one space

Most Popular Certifications

General Contractor	3,759 people
Occupational Safety & Health Administration	5,110 people
Project Management Certificate	6,040 people
Engineer in Training	6,208 people
Certified Professional Engineer	6,807 people
Project Management Professional	9,580 people

94% of Project Management positions are permanent.

The other 6% consists of temporary, temporary to permanent position, part time & per diem.

GET CERTIFIED - move forward one space

Most Popular States for Project Management in 2011

Most Popular Cities for Project Management Skills

- ★ New York, New York
- ★ Chicago, Illinois
- ★ Los Angeles, California
- ★ Seattle, Washington
- ★ Houston, Texas
- ★ Atlanta, Georgia
- ★ Dallas, Texas

RELOCATE - move forward one space

Salary for Project Managers by Company

Boeing
Hewlett Packard
IBM
Accenture
Lockheed Martin
Northrop Grumman
Microsoft

Other Large Cooperation's Hiring Project Managers

CHOOSE A COMPANY - move forward one space

Median Salary by Position

CHOOSE A POSITION - move forward one space

FINISH! - congratulations

sources: <http://www.payscale.com>

* based on a survey of 882 project managers.

 based on a survey of 82,822 project managers.

 based on a survey of 38,999 project managers.